

Pete Swan Productions

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Peter Swan, and I am a musician and producer. I produced a show on August 10th, 2021 with Pacal Thiam's From Timbuktu to the Mississippi Delta show. I am writing this letter in support of this wonderful production and to describe how this show is one of the best shows

I have ever produced. I had an attendance of 60 people who bought a ticket for the show and Included a demographic of people who have a background in education, the arts, retired professors and professionals from various fields.

The overwhelming response was extremely enthusiastic, and people describing the presentation and the following performance as one of the best concerts they had ever been a part of. Pascal has put together a wonderful presentation, and his ability to bring insight to a very complex and delicate subject was moving. He has also put together a tremendous group of musicians and their performance took the event to another level.

Pascal is a rare individual that can play his instrument at a master level and also communicate with an audience in a way that is personal and informative. He has taken a very needed topic for everyone in this country to understand and be exposed to, and made it an uplifting experience that any group of people would find interesting and inspiring.

Yours Truly,

Peter Swan
